
Trainee Sales Negotiator

With multiple offices across Berkshire, Hampshire, Oxfordshire & Wiltshire, Parkers are always looking for talent and offer the opportunity to start a career in estate agency.

Are you interested in starting a career in property?

Principle Accountabilities:

- Generating, arranging, and carrying out viewings of properties for sale
 - Building & maintaining long term relationships with Vendors having built a thorough understanding of their requirements
 - Advising prospective buyers & sellers, understanding their requirements & sourcing the best properties to match
 - Handling offers, negotiations and queries between Vendors & Buyers
 - Ensuring consistent delivery of our high levels of customer service
-

The right candidate will be:

- Able to learn quickly, take responsibility and strive for success
 - A dynamic, fun individual who thrives in a team and take ownership of their own projects
 - An 'A' player who isn't afraid of hard work
 - Someone who can build relationships with our clients whilst also exploring new opportunities
 - A key member of our team who believes in our purpose, values, and culture
 - Ideally have some experience within the property industry, sales or customer service roles
-

We are offering:

- 20 days annual leave plus bank holidays
- Funding of exams and qualifications
- Plenty of first-class training and development resources
- The opportunity to learn from a lively highly skilled team to help develop your career